THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Josephine Amatucci

v.

Greenhalghn

DOCKET 1:22-CV-00340

MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

JUDGMENT AS A MATTER OF LAW

1. Please refer to the attached- Department of Safety- document submitted to the Department by defendant Greenhalghn, accusing the Plaintiff of violating RSA 631:2-A, 1(B)"RECKLESSLY CAUSING BODILY INJURY TO ANOTHER". A Fraudulent statement.
2. Where Greenhalghn knew from the Plaintiff's submitted evidence to the Court, in her Motion to Dismiss, of a statement made by the alleged victim, that he had "NO INJURY", and by a statement made by the Manager of the alleged victim, who was a witness to the event, that occurred at the Town Dump, a statement made to the Court by the alleged victim's Manager, at the TRIAL, to the Court, that there wasNO BODILY INJURY.....to the alleged victim, as he stated that the alleged victim was never standing in the doorway, that he was NOT pushed down the stairs, and that there was NO INJURY to the alleged victim. Contrary to the alleged victim's version of events, when the alleged victim stated that he was standing in the doorway when the Plaintiff pushed him aside and he fell down two steps, although the alleged victim ADMITTED THERE WASNO INJURY.

3. And with all this evidence before Greenhalghn, when Greenhalghn falsely accused the Plaintiff of committing an Assault to the Department of Safety, Greenhalghn was in fact violating the Plaintiff's Civil Rights, where she is allowed a jury trial of her peers for damages under 1983, for an unlawful detention when she had to endure a trial, for the violation of her Liberty rights, and a violation of Due Process, when Greenhalghn had NO PROBABLE CAUSE to accuse her of committing an ASSAULT, that it is an Established Right, and that Greenhalghn was acting under Color of Law. A violation of her civil rights and for serious pain and suffering, for character assassination, to a very elderly person.

4. All determination's of viable Civil Rights violation's which allows damages under 1983. in an EXPEDITIOUS MANNER, as this case has been lingering in the court long enough.

Respectfully,

Josephine Amatucci
